

EARLY RELEASE OF STUDENTS

Senior students may be excused from attending school at the end of their last class for employment purposes provided that:

1. the student attends at least four classes plus physical education and is meeting diploma requirements,
2. a written request by both the parent and the student has been submitted and approved by the Board of Education.

Early release approvals may be revoked if established conditions do not continue to be met.

a*d